THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY - These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

NORTHCOAST SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

2016 COLLEGE POWER PLAYS RANKINGS

Listed below are Northcoast Sports' Power Play Rankings. These Power Play Rankings are unique. Our rankings are unlike any computer ranking, as we take into account all the following: Strength of Opponents, Individual Units (Rushing Offense, Rushing Defense, Passing Offense, and Passing Defense) Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edges, and successful Unbalanced Attacks. Regular rankings based solely on numbers DO NOT take into account these factors.

The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special rating system. You will see in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the PP forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree. We want to make it clear that this is the PP Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. If the PP's rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game. With all that said here are this week's PP Selections.

EAST CAROLINA	543	108	435	26	-12	-

Both schls are struggling entering this contest & PP is projecting EC to snap their 5 game losing streak this week, winning by just a fg & with the Vegas line over a td, we'll side with the dog.

NEW MEXICO STATE	385	120	265	9	-2	-
TEXAS A&M	659	317	342	54	+6	✓✓✓✓✓

CINCINNATI	314	89	226	17	+3	-
TEMPLE	457	211	247	34	+2	✓✓✓

A large majority of the PP projection for this game is based on UC not having Gunner Kiel running the OFF, but his return as the str LW sparked the Bearcats & we disagree with this forecast.

FLORIDA STATE	478	194	285	28	+6	-

PP can't project a winner here but the yds tell us all we need to know. FSU is projected to have a 478-422 yd edge and we can't agree more so we will take the pts and play the 'Noles!

Power Plays is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers in parenthesis are a comparison of the teams rankings (Visitor, visitors offense ranking vs home defense ranking, Home home offensive ranking vs visitor defensive ranking) over each teams last 4 games.

The Jaguars head to Nashville following a home loss to OAK where they turned the ball over on 3 occasions. The Titans meanwhile moved their record as a favorite to just 1-8 ATS after their home loss to IND. While PP does forecast TEN with a 5 pt win, the yards are too close to make a call.

WASHINGTON	367	119	248	21	-1	#13
CINCINNATI	399	147	252	27	+3	#29

London (9:30am EST). The Bengals were able to get back on track LW vs CLE (559 ttl yds) after playing one of the more brutal schedules to date. The Redskins head across the pond with their 1st loss in 5 tries after surrendering a Lions TD with :16 left in the 3 pt loss. With CIN's 21-9 ATS mark against the NFC and a forecasted 6 pt win, we'll side with them in this one.

GREEN BAY	359	87	272	23	-2	#28
ATLANTA	398	119	279	30	+2	#3

While the Packers finally got their offense clicking in the 2H a week ago, it's worth noting that it came against the struggling Bears. They now head to ATL to take on an angry Falcons team that blew a 17 pt lead last week against the Chargers. With ATL on a 7-3 ATS run and forecasted with a 7 pt win, they get the call as our Top Weekly Selection.

DETROIT	313	105	208	18	+1	#1
HOUSTON	351	111	240	21	-4	#17

After a trio of victories at home in Detroit, the Lions now head back on the road to take on a Texans team on short rest following their MNF matchup in DEN. While HOU's numbers are clearly weaker on the road, they've been extremely solid at home (3-0-1 ATS, all'g just 315 ypg) and could very well surpass the 3 pt projected win that PP has them forecasted at.

NO PLAY: HOUSTON 21 DETROIT 18

SEATTLE	357	105	252	27	+1	#21
NEW ORLEANS	349	47	302	19	0	#14

The Seahawks head to the Superdome following a fortunate TIE last week in the desert in a game that they were clearly dominated statistically. The Saints meanwhile couldn't get it done LW in KC as they continue to struggle away from home. While PP forecasts the Seahawks to get an 8 pt win, the yardage edge is minimal and the Saints are 11-3 ATS when listed as a dog.

NO PLAY: SEATTLE 27 NEW ORLEANS 19

NEW ENGLAND	396	132	264	22	+3	#11
BUFFALO	336	136	200	22	+9	#16

Following a 3rd consec win with Brady back under center the Patriots head to BUF in search of revenge from their only loss of the '16 ssn. The Bills saw their winning streak snapped at 4 in a row LW in MIA as they suffered 26-16 FD and 454-267 yd deficits. While PP calls for a 22-22 tie, we disagree and believe that NE is clearly the stronger squad in this one.

NY JETS	417	160	257	21	-11	#20
CLEVELAND	318	69	249	20	-2	#24

A pair of subpar tms square off in this one with QB questions on either side. While the Jets did get the come-from-behind win LW against a banged up BAL squad, it's hard to back them in this one despite a 417-318 yd projected finish as CLE has routinely been stingy during their winless start.

TAMPA BAY	449	166	283	24	-3	#22

The visitor in Raider games continues to cover on a regular basis following a 7th consec cover to being the ssn LW in JAX. They're now back in FL for a 2nd straight wk to take on a Bucs squad that delivered a 17 pt win LW in SF. With PP forecasting a one point win by TB, we'll pass on this one as the Bucs are just 1-7 ATS as a HF.

INDIANAPOLIS	372	94	278	22	+1	#2

While the Chiefs come to Indy with the better mark on the ssn and forecasted for a 4 pt win, it's worth noting that the Colts have been dominant when listed as a HD with a 10-0 ATS run that includes 9 outright victories. No Play.

These 2 meet for the 2nd time in the L/18 days with DEN looking for revenge following their loss to the Chargers on Thur Night in SD. While the Broncos are forecasted with a 7 pt win, SD's 9-2 ATS run has us unwilling to lay the points in this one.

ARIZONA	403	124	279	25	+4	#27
CAROLINA	305	89	216	19	-8	#23

After their shocking tie LW at home against the Seahawks where they had dominating statistical edges, the Cardinals head to CAR in search of revenge following LY's NFC Championship blowout. PP forecasts them with a 6 pt win in Charlotte and we agree as the Panthers (off a bye) have posted just one victory all ssn (home vs SF) and appear to be an afterthought in the NFC playoff conversation at this moment.

PHILADELPHIA	339	112	227	21	+6	#5
DALLAS	395	192	203	22	+4	#18

A pair of rookie QB's square off in this one with a spot atop the NFC East on the line. While DAL comes in well rested following LW's bye (8-3 ATS), the Eagles are confident after their upset of previously undefeated MIN (PHI 15-3 ATS run as a DIV AD). PP calls for this matchup to be a 1 pt win in favor of DAL so give your Northcoast VIP Card after 11am EST on gameday (just $12) to see which way we lean. Also available on your Marquee Pack!

The Vikings head to Soldier Field off of their 1st loss of the ssn to take on a Bears tm that has extra and much needed rest following their Thur defeat in GB. While MIN is forecasted for a 12 pt MOV, it's unclear as of presstime on who will be lining up under center for the Bears.
