WEEK 3 COLLEGE MATCHUP HISTORY

[illegible]

THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

NORTHCOAST SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

2026 COLLEGE POWER PLAYS RANKINGS

Listed below are Northcoast Sports' Power Play Rankings. These Power Play Rankings are unique. Our rankings are unlike any computer ranking, as we take into account all the following: Strength of Opponents, Individual Units (Rushing Offense, Rushing Defense, Passing Offense, and Passing Defense) Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edges, and successful Unbalanced Attacks. Regular rankings based solely on numbers DO NOT take into account these factors.

Power Plays is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input.

DETROIT	298	98	200	15	+2	#22
BUFFALO	424	149	276	28	+2	#18

BUF carries a +126 total-yard edge, with QB Allen (334 pass yds, 2 pass TD, 2 rush TD) coming off another dominant opener. DET allowed 469 yds in wk1 and has multiple OL injuries for the short week. The computer calls for an 13-point Buffalo win, and we love it PP here!

GREEN BAY	271	73	198	15	-1	#14
NY JETS	290	145	145	16	+1	#2

NYJ gets a +72 rushing-yard edge, but QB Jordan Love (387 pass yds, 2 TD) and WR Christian Watson (6-147, 2 TD) were much better than the final wk1 score showed. The computer has this inside a FG, but its result runs opposite the stronger GB bounce-back case. We'll pass here.

MINNESOTA	338	106	232	19	+1	#12
CHICAGO	380	175	205	22	+2	#7

CHI owns a +42 total-yard advantage and a +69 rushing edge, but QB Wentz is expected to start for MIN after QB Murray's concussion. WR Jefferson (8-92, 2 TD) gives Wentz a dependable matchup breaker, and the computer's 3-pt margin is too tight.

PITTSBURGH	302	102	200	14	+1	#10
NEW ENGLAND	392	127	265	17	-3	#16

NE's +90 total-yard advantage is driven by the passing game, but QB Drake Maye (178 pass yds, TD, 3 INT) comes off a costly fourth quarter at Seattle and WR A.J. Brown is now on IR. QB Aaron Rodgers (221 pass yds, TD) had several downfield chances erased in wk1, and the computer keeps this within a FG which is tight to the line.

NO PLAY: NEW ENGLAND 17 PITTSBURGH 14

CAROLINA	285	108	177	16	-2	#28
ATLANTA	322	141	181	17	-1	#21

ATL gets just a +37 total-yard edge, while QB Bryce Young (361 pass yds, 3 TD) and WR Jalen Coker (8-138, 2 TD) gave CAR's offense real life in wk1. QB Cooper Rush (143 pass yds, TD, 2 INT) struggled at PIT and QB Tua Tagovailoa remains questionable, leaving the computer's 1-point Atlanta margin too fragile to trust.

NO PLAY: ATLANTA 17 CAROLINA 16

CLEVELAND	254	73	181	10	-2	#30
TAMPA BAY	292	155	137	18	-3	#26

TB's +82 rushing-yard edge fits a Browns offense still looking for answers after QB Deshaun Watson's uneven opener. QB Mayfield completed 23 of 28 without an INT despite four Tampa Bay fumbles, but the computer's 8-point margin sits too close to the market.

NO PLAY: TAMPA BAY 18 CLEVELAND 10

CINCINNATI	293	53	240	17	+3	#17
HOUSTON	356	120	236	20	-2	#13

HOU projects for a +63 total-yard edge, with CIN at 293 total yds after adjusting Joe Burrow to 240 pass yds. Burrow still has the cleaner road QB profile after throwing for 254 yds, a TD, and an INT in wk1, while C.J. Stroud (274 pass yds, 2 TD) was productive at BUF. The computer gives HOU a 3-pt edge, but Cincinnati's improved passing projection and 17-point output keep this inside the market number, making it too close to call.

NEW ORLEANS	337	91	246	10	-2	#29
BALTIMORE	291	146	145	19	+1	#15

BAL's +55 rushing-yard edge pairs with QB Lamar Jackson (324 pass yds, TD) and RB Derrick Henry (144 rush yds, 3 TD) after a 41-point opener. QB Tyler Shough (410 pass yds, 3 TD) and WR Chris Olave (10-182) kept NO alive in Detroit, though, and the computer's margin is nearly identical to the market.

PHILADELPHIA	265	113	153	14	0	#6
TENNESSEE	243	73	170	8	-1	#19

PHI has only a +22 total-yard edge, even though QB Cam Ward (140 pass yds, TD) and TEN managed just 195 yds in wk1. QB Jalen Hurts (203 pass yds, 3 TD) can take control late, but the computer's 6-point margin is a touch below the market.

LAS VEGAS	261	101	160	8	0	#32
LA CHARGERS	299	115	184	14	-1	#9

LAC gets only a +38 total-yard edge after QB Justin Herbert (209 pass yds, TD, INT) and the offense were outplayed by ARI in wk1. RB Ashton Jeanty (102 rush yds, 45 rec yds, 2 TD) gives LV enough offense to stay involved, and the computer is not far enough above the market to lay the points.

JACKSONVILLE	320	97	224	17	+2	#20
DENVER	330	92	238	15	-1	#23

DEN owns a slight +10 total-yard edge, but QB Trevor Lawrence (245 pass yds, 4 TD) was nearly flawless against CLE while QB Bo Nix (131 pass yds, TD, INT) could not get Denver moving at KC. The computer makes JAX a narrow winner, yet the market already gives the Jaguars enough help in a game where Denver's defense can bounce back.

WASHINGTON	305	110	195	18	0	#8
DALLAS	363	95	268	20	0	#4

DAL carries a +58 total-yard edge, but QB Dak Prescott (175 pass yds, 2 TD, INT) needs a better response after a quiet opener at NYG. QB Jayden Daniels (164 pass yds, 2 TD) and WAS could not sustain much at PHI, yet the computer has Dallas by only 2 in a market asking for more.

SEATTLE	376	126	250	23	+3	#1
ARIZONA	292	105	187	7	+1	#24

SEA's +84 total-yard edge is paired with the league's top special-teams rating and a defense that turned three fourth-quarter INTs into its wk1 win. The computer doesn't account for QB Sam Darnold being out and QB Drew Lock taking over. Even with that downgrade, Lock has enough support from WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba (8-122, TD), and the matchup still warrants a reduced PP even with the QB change.

MIAMI	219	117	102	7	0	#3
SAN FRANCISCO	485	164	321	29	+1	#31

SF projects for a massive +266 total-yard edge, including +219 through the air, as MIA makes another road trip after a 13-point opener. QB Malik Willis (220 pass yds, 39 rush yds, rush TD) was under constant pressure in Las Vegas, while QB Brock Purdy (205 pass yds, 3 TD) has a much better surrounding cast with RB Christian McCaffrey and WR Demarcus Robinson. The computer's 22-point margin sits well above the market and matches a difficult travel and matchup spot for Miami. PP here!

INDIANAPOLIS	301	100	201	19	-1	#5
KANSAS CITY	448	185	263	26	+1	#11

KC carries a huge +147 total-yard edge, including +85 on the ground, and RB Kenneth Walker III (173 rush yds, TD) should again be the offensive driver. RB Jonathan Taylor (98 rush yds, 2 TD) gives IND enough of a counterpunch to stay competitive. Computer proejection is too tight for a play.

LA RAMS	403	164	239	17	-1	#27

LAR projects for a +169 yd edge but QB Jaxson Dart (230 pass yds, 3 TD) led NYG's clean win at Dallas. The Rams return from Melbourne without EDGE Garrett, while QB Stafford and the offense have a bounce-back spot after the SF loss. The computer margin is still below the market, making this a pass..
