THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 spots in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Phil's Power Ratings they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the defense.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

NORTHCOAST SPORTS PLUS OR MINUS POWER RATINGS

The Power Ratings listed below are not based on the Power Plays, they are based on last year's final computer power rating numbers with the pluses and minuses from the off season changes factored in. They are then adjusted during the course of the season based on the final score of the games that are played on a weekly basis. The Power Ratings listed below can be used for you as a base power ratings to forecast up coming lines and strength of opponents, etc. Once again, they are not based on Power Plays and they differ from what we have shown in recent years, which has been our actual computer Power Ratings. These are Northcoast Sports Plus or Minus Power Ratings.

COLORADO	260	55	205	17	+6	-
HOUSTON	409	187	222	27	+4	-

Early line favors Houston by 5'. The computer has the Cougars by 10 and holding Colorado to 260 yds. We agree with the computer since the Houston D is peaking and the Buffs have QB trouble.
4★ HOUSTON 27 COLORADO 17

KANSAS ST	333	134	199	22	-1	✓
ARIZONA	415	101	314	34	+7	-

PP has AZ outgaining Kansas St by 82 yds and winning by 12. KSU is desperate after starting 1-2 and still the more complete team. With their back against the wall, we think they'll win by 2.

Series trends are mixed on a short week: Washington has covered 4 of the last 5 vs GB, but Green Bay has been strong at home on Thursdays. Week 1 showed both identities clearly—GB jumped out early with Jordan Love (16/22, 188, 2 TD) and a balanced ground game, while Washington's defense stacked 4 sacks and held NYG to 0-for-11 on third downs as Jayden Daniels went 233-1-1 with Deebo Samuel adding 77 rec yards and a rush TD. Head to head matchups favor Cincinnati (3-0 SU last five yrs / 2-1 ATS) as the Bengals ride defense and takeaways. CIN ground out a 17-16 road win despite losing the yardage, going +2 in TOs with Dax Hill and Cam Taylor-Britt picking off late throws; Joe Burrow was managed (113 pass) with scores from Chase Brown and Noah Fant. JAX mauled the Panthers up front (200 rush), led by Travis Etienne (143) and a clean pocket for Trevor Lawrence (19/31, 178-1-1). NY JETS	305	105	200	14	-2	#22

Buffalo arrives off the wild SNF comeback in which Josh Allen stacked 394-2-0 with two rushing TDs and a turnover-free 497-yard night. The Jets put up 394 yards themselves as Justin Fields accounted for three TDs and Breece Hall ran for 107, but a late Steelers FG with 1:03 spoiled their season opener. Series has leaned Buffalo lately (3-0 ATS) and Jets are on B2B home games where they are actually 0-2 SU/ATS. Computer has Buffalo taking care of business and we align.

CHICAGO	274	77	197	11	+8	#7
DETROIT	400	152	248	21	+2	#3

Detroit returns home after a flat day at Lambeau, while Chicago's Caleb Williams flashed (210-1-1) but took 5 sacks and lost a key fumble. The Lions' run game was muted (59 rush) and they missed a shot-changing defensive TD on a flag, but Amon-Ra St. Brown moved chains and Jahmyr Gibbs was active underneath. Chicago outgained Minnesota yet surrendered 21 in the fourth; Khalil Herbert's 98 rush yards keep the Bears balanced. Expect DET offense to bounce back strong here. We love the 10 point win projection.

SEATTLE	308	83	226	10	-7	#8
PITTSBURGH	303	107	196	19	+16	#20

Pittsburgh opened with Aaron Rodgers looking strong (22/30, 244, 4 TD, 0 INT) and late chemistry to Calvin Austin III and Pat Freiermuth. Seattle's Sam Darnold was underwhelming (150, 0 INT) and the offense totaled 230 yards; Jaxon Smith-Njigba exploded for 9-124 while the RBs combined for 67 rush yards (Walker 2.0 ypc, Charbonnet 3.9). Steelers allowed more rush yds due to QB Fields dynamic ability but Darnold isn't the same threat. Steelers prediction here aligns nicely.

SAN FRANCISCO	407	146	261	15	-10	#32
NEW ORLEANS	281	110	171	14	-2	#21

San Francisco gutted out a road win with a late Purdy TD despite two INTs, generating a +154 yardage edge and four sacks at Seattle. Kittle's on IR and Purdy's shoulder/toe status is one to monitor; SF also swapped kickers (Pineiro in). New Orleans showed yardage and protection (315, 1 sack) but penalties and drops undercut the day, with Kamara providing the lone TD. If the computer shows a small SF edge, the trenches and schedule profile support it; a Saints lean would reflect home dog trends. With injury concerns and a close matchup this is a no play.

CAROLINA	257	98	159	9	-5	#19
ARIZONA	410	202	208	25	-3	#12

Arizona left New Orleans with a clean, turnover-free win as Kyler Murray delivered two red-zone TDs and the defense logged five sacks. Carolina surrendered 378 yards with 200 on the ground to Jacksonville, though Bryce Young flashed mobility and found Chuba Hubbard late. The yardage prediction is the most lopsided in all of the predictions this week and with how Carolina played last week and previously it makes sense. Prediction here is heavy favored towards ARI and we agree.

DENVER	316	122	194	16	+6	#2
INDIANAPOLIS	301	127	174	14	-4	#16

Denver's defense dominated the Titans (6 sacks) and Bo Nix managed it after two early picks, with Dobbins and Sutton providing balance. A late decision to pass on a 50+ yard Will Lutz attempt factored into the non-cover vs -8.5 (early -7.5 backers cashed). Indianapolis rolled Miami behind Daniel Jones (22/29, 272-1-0), Jonathan Taylor's steady 71, and a defense that produced three sacks. With the Colts over performing LW and Broncos under performing this one seems as tight as the prediction suggests, no play.

PHILADELPHIA	342	158	184	14	+21	#25
KANSAS CITY	286	87	199	14	+5	#13

A showcase matchup with Kansas City in a rare home dog spot after the Brazil opener. KC's protection held (1 sack) and Patrick Mahomes posted 241-2-1 with Travis Kelce scoring; when KC WR worthy exited (shoulder), KC WR Brown stepped in with 10-99. Philadelphia opened fast but went scoreless after halftime, finishing at 308 yards with Jalen Hurts' two rushing TDs. The computer shows the rare tie and with the line close to that this is a no play.

ATLANTA	351	102	250	11	-6	#18
MINNESOTA	331	117	214	21	+10	#30

Minnesota took the opener with a record comeback behind rookie J.J. McCarthy's three fourth-quarter TDs, but the final ledger was just 254 total yards. Atlanta's rookie Michael Penix Jr. threw for 298 with two TDs (one rushing) as Bijan Robinson piled 124 scrimmage yards; the defense held TB to 3.7 ypc. Injuries and specials matter: Drake London is day-to-day (AC joint) and Atlanta brought in kickers after a late miss. With trends leaning Minnesota we much align with this 10 point win but yardage numbers show this might be a bit closer of a game, still enough the around 5 point line.

TAMPA BAY	317	107	210	14	-6	#29
HOUSTON	310	81	229	15	+11	#10

Tampa opened with a clean road win — TB QB Mayfield 167-3-0, TB WR Egbuka 4-67-2 — and a defense that tightened in the RZ; monitor LT Tristan Wirfs (ankle). They've also won 4 of their last 5 away and are 2-0 SU/ATS in the second leg of road back-to-backs. HOU returns to NRG off a one-score loss: QB C.J. Stroud 19/27 for 188 until a late deep INT, RB Nick Chubb 13-60 (4.6) for balance, and DE Will Anderson Jr. 1.5 sk led a lively front. Rare series (one meeting in five years) where HOU won but TB covered. Computer shows Houston by 1; we'll pass here.

LAS VEGAS	332	84	248	12	-16	#4

Los Angeles notched a landmark win in São Paulo with Justin Herbert firing 318-3-0 and clean situational football (0 turnovers). Las Vegas answered with a cross-country win as Geno Smith threw for 362 and Jakobi Meyers led a diversified passing attack. The Raiders' Monday home profile is strong, while the Chargers bring trend support as an away favorite. Travel and pass protection on both sides set the tone for a high-leverage divisional closer. Computer shows 5 point Chargers win but with LV Monday success this one is too close to play. No play.
