NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS.....GRADE: B

OFFENSE 393 ypg (#5) Patriots: +34 ypg (#7) DEFENSE 359 ypg (#21) SCORING 27.3 ppg (#4) +10 TO's +7 ppg (#5) SCORING 20.3 ppg (#7)

Offense: While the loss of one of the greatest TE's in NFL history is significant, the Patriots bring in a pair of veterans at the position to help. Also added are veteran WR Thomas and 1st Rd DC Harry to give Brady the weapons he desires for '19 success. The Patriots will be in the mix once again for the NFL's top offense. Grade: EVEN
Defense: The Patriots didn't have a dominating defense early on LY but did turn it one when needed including their domination of the Rams offense in the SB. While a few big names depart on this side of the ball, the additions should adjust quickly to the new scheme. Grade: EVEN
Overview: The Patriots remain amongst the elite in the NFL following a 6th SB appearance this decade. While the losses on both sides of the ball are significant, the foundation in NE continues to be so solid that using a plug-and-play method for the newcomers should continue to pay dividends. As long as Brady is lining up under center in Foxboro, the Patriots will continue to be a contender in the AFC.

BUFFALO BILLS.....GRADE: B+

OFFENSE 299 ypg (#30) Bills: +5 ypg (#17) DEFENSE 294 ypg (#2) SCORING 16.8 ppg (#30) -5 TO's -6.6 ppg (#28) SCORING 23.4 ppg (#18)

Offense: The Bills did an excellent job this offseason of surrounding QB Josh Allen with talent needed to make a jump to the next level. After finishing just 30th in the NFL a year ago in both ypg and scoring, we look for BUF's offense to make a solid climb in '19. Grade: UP
Defense: HC Sean McDermott and DC Leslie Frazier continue to do a solid job with this unit including a #2 ypg finish LY. TY the group gets some help at both DL and DB with 1st Rd DC Oliver leading the way. The Bills should have no problem grabbing another Top 10 ranking for 2019. Grade: UP
Overview: While BUF was able to end their 17-year postssn absence in '17, the overall departures on the offensive side of the ball LY were alarming. This offseason they appear to have adjusted those issues with a heavy amount of mid-tier depth at Allen's disposal. The Bills may be the only team capable of challenging the Patriots in the AFC East in 2019.

MIAMI DOLPHINS.....GRADE: D+

OFFENSE 290 ypg (#31) Dolphins: -101 ypg (#30) DEFENSE 391 ypg (#29) SCORING 19.9 ppg (#26) +5 TO's -7.2 ppg (#30) SCORING 27.1 ppg (#27)

Offense: MIA has the weakest QB unit in the NFL with Fitzpatrick and Rosen the top 2 on the depth chart. LY they finished #31 in the NFL at just 290 ypg. With limited talent to work with on this side of the ball, a bottom-third finish should be in the future once again. Grade: DOWN
Defense: LY the Dolphins finished in the lower portion of the NFL in both ypg (#29) and ppg (#27) allowed. This year appears to be no different as a pair of key losses up front could really take a toll on the front 7's overall success. While 1st Rd DC Christian Wilkins should have a solid future in the NFL, his impact in '19 will be limited with the lack of talent surrounding him. Grade: DOWN
Overview: While new HC Brian Flores appears to be an instant upgrade for the Dolphins, the talent in MIA is severely lacking for the upcoming year with victories expected to be few and far between in the 1st year of the rebuild. The overall additions through the draft have MIA headed in the right direction but the 2020 draft will be the clear focal point for the Dolphins' organization.

NEW YORK JETS.....GRADE: B

OFFENSE 299 ypg (#29) Jets: -81 ypg (#29) DEFENSE 380 ypg (#25) SCORING 20.8 ppg (#23) -10 TO's -6.8 ppg (#29) SCORING 27.6 ppg (#29)

Offense: After a relatively solid rookie season for QB Sam Darnold, the Jets have added one of the league's best RB's to help his growth in Bell who will be fresh after taking a year off with the Steelers. The Jets will more than likely compete for an upper-half finish in the offensive rankings for 2019. Grade: UP
Defense: The Jets have added in a pair of premier talents on the defensive side of the ball with the FA signing of Mosley and the high pick drafting of Williams. The front-7 will likely contribute in taking a relatively large chunk out of the porous def numbers of a ssn ago. Grade: UP
Overview: The Jets have now strung together DD losses in 3 consecutive seasons following LY's 4-12 mark. While the addition in overall talent far outweighs the losses for the Jets in 2019, the front office turmoil could have them struggling to collect wins as HC Adam Gase may have bit off more than he can chew in his first year in Gotham.

BALTIMORE RAVENS

GRADE: D+

OFFENSE 375 ypg (#9) Ravens: +82 ypg (#1)
SCORING 24.3 ppg (#13) -3 TO's +6.4 ppg (#6)
DEFENSE 293 ypg (#1) SCORING 17.9 ppg (#2)

Offense: The switch from Flacco to Jackson a year ago saw BAL surge into the postssn before being tripped up by the Chargers. With Flacco shipped to DEN, the offense fully belongs to Jackson from here on out which concerns us as he's clearly not a capable NFL passer. Grade: DOWN

Defense: The Ravens had the #1 defense in the NFL a year ago allowing just 293 ypg. The '19 version will look much different as some of their big names (Suggs, Mosley, Weddle) move on with the veteran Thomas and a trio of DC's being added. This group will slide some TY. Grade: DOWN

Overview: The Ravens finished in the Top 10 of both off and def ypg a ssn ago en route to a 10-6 mark and an AFC North title (#1 in NFL at +82 ypg). This year they'll look much different on both sides of the ball with a handful of stars moving on. While QB Jackson was outstanding in college and put together a solid rookie campaign, he'll need to become more of a pocket passer to stay healthy for the long-term. In a division that features PIT and the upstart Browns, BAL will likely take a hit in their overall record for the upcoming year.

SCORING 22.4 ppg (#20) +7 TO's -2.1 ppg (#20)
DEFENSE 393 ypg (#30) SCORING 24.5 ppg (#21)

Offense: What a difference a year makes on offense as they've gone from searching for their franchise QB to now adding in outstanding weapons to go alongside Baker Mayfield. LY the Browns finished #13 in off ypg. With everyone now added, a Top 10 spot should be on tape for the '19 campaign. Grade: UP

Defense: The offensive side of the ball wasn't the only area that saw an upgrade in '19 as Richardson, Vernon and #2DC Williams bolster a defensive group that struggled overall a year ago allowing 393 ypg (#30 NFL) Grade: UP

Overview: After surpassing the Bills ('08-'13) with an NFL record 7th consecutive last place finish a year ago, the Browns made a handful of changes in the front office a year ago which FINALLY paid off. Following a 1-31 mark the 2 yrs prior, CLE nearly finished with a .500 mark in '18. TY the sky is the limit for the Browns as they enter '19 as the favorite to claim the AFC North title. With PIT and BAL losing some key pieces and CIN in rebuild mode, we give CLE a chance to reach DD wins!

SCORING 26.8 ppg (#6) -11 TO's +4.3 ppg (#11)
DEFENSE 327 ypg (#6) SCORING 22.5 ppg (#16)

Offense: While Big Ben is back for another yr in PIT, 2 of his key offensive weapons have departed in Bell and Brown. The Steelers continue to draft well and will not be too far off from LY's showing despite the losses. Grade: DOWN

Defense: The Steelers are now a yr removed from the inj to Ryan Shazier and moved up to draft Devin Bush in the 1st Rnd as the future at the LB position. PIT wasn't done adding talent on the overall unit with a handful of FA's and other DC's looking to add onto an already solid D that finished #6 a yr ago all'g 327 ypg. Grade: UP

Overview: Tomlin has guided his team to 8 playoff appearances in his 12 years. After being the only team in the NFL to finish in the Top 5 in both total off and def in '17, PIT just missed out on that mark a year ago (#4 off, #6 def). The true test for the Steelers earning another playoff berth in '19 will come from a Browns squad who they've bullied since their return to CLE back in '99. If they find away to get by CLE, the Steelers could still make some noise in the AFC.

OFFENSE 311 ypg (#26) Bengals: -103 ypg (#31)
SCORING 23.0 ppg (#17) +1 TO's -5.4 ppg (#26)
DEFENSE 414 ypg (#32) SCORING 28.4 ppg (#30)

Offense: The Bengals have added a good amount of young talent to their offense for the upcoming year incl OL Williams who should be a starter on Day 1. With a healthy AJ Green back to open up the passing game, there is some talent here if Andy Dalton can get back on track. Grade: EVEN

Defense: CIN was downright dreadful on the def side of the ball in '18 with a #32 effort (414 ypg). Unfortunately the new additions to the group appear to be mostly backups and ST options for their rookie campaigns which could result in another long year for this group. Grade: EVEN

Overview: Marvin Lewis moves on following 17 yrs as HC of CIN. The final 3 yrs didn't go as planned however with losing seasons in each including just a 6-10 performance a year ago. New HC Zac Taylor will be tasked for the resurrection of a franchise that made numerous playoff appearances this decade although the QB position may be an area that needs some work as Dalton continues to under perform. CIN is well on their way to a 2nd consec trip to the AFC North basement.

HOUSTON TEXANS ..... GRADE: D+

OFFENSE 363 ypg (#15) Texans: +20 ypg (#11) DEFENSE 343 ypg (#12)
 SCORING 25.1 ppg (#11) +13 TO's +5.3 ppg (#9) SCORING 19.8 ppg (#4)

Offense: The biggest issue on the HOU offense a ssn ago was an OL that all'd QB Watson and company to be sacked an NFL-high 62 times! The additions of FA Kalil along with 1st & 2nd Rnd DC's should ease some of those issues for the upcoming year. Grade: EVEN
Defense: The losses in the HOU secondary far outweigh the additions with a trio of solid players moving on. While the Texans will still have a formidable def unit, the newly acquired DB's will have to step up quickly. Grade: DOWN
Overview: After slipping all the way to 4-12 in '17, things looked much brighter a year ago with HOU cashing in on the AFC South Title. If they are going to see a repeat performance for 2019, the newly acquired OL will have to protect their star QB who has already suffered an ACL in his young career. With a daunting sked over the 1H of the ssn that includes non-DIV trips to NO, LAC and KC, it will be extremely difficult for the Texans to post a DD win campaign for a 2nd consecutive season.

TENNESSEE TITANS ..... GRADE: B

OFFENSE 312 ypg (#25) Titans: -21 ypg (#25) DEFENSE 333 ypg (#8)
 SCORING 19.4 ppg (#27) -1 TO's +0.5 ppg (#15) SCORING 18.9 ppg (#3)

Offense: Injuries played a major role in the overall development of the offense a year ago as the Titans dropped down to just 312 ypg (#25). While a few pieces were added including a potential upgrade at bkp QB, this group will only go as far as the oft-injured Mariota takes them. Grade: EVEN
Defense: The Titans did a solid job in '18 by adding veteran CB Butler and a pair of high DC's to an already formidable group. After a decade of finishes outside of the NFL's Top 10 in total defense, the Titans moved up to #8. TY they add in another pass rushing threat in FA Wake and will have a solid chance of a 2nd consec Top 10 performance. Grade: EVEN
Overview: HC Vrabel surrounded himself with some great coaching minds LY which nearly saw the Titans earn a playoff berth. TY the sked starts off fairly difficult with road trips in 3 of the 1st 4. If Mariota remains healthy, they will be back in the mix for another playoff bid.

 SCORING 27.1 ppg (#5) +2 TO's +5.6 ppg (#8) SCORING 21.5 ppg (#10)

Offense: The Colts did an excellent job LY by adding a pair of early picks to the OL unit. TY they added some more talent to the passing game for QB Luck who returned to outstanding form in '18 following a pair of injury-riddled seasons. The Colts will contend for another Top 10 offensive performance TY. Grade: EVEN
Defense: The Colts had one of the biggest defensive turnarounds in the NFL LY as they moved up to #11 in def ypg. TY they add some more bodies to the pass-rushing dept in FA Justin Houston while the secondary was also bolstered by the draft. Grade: EVEN
Overview: Frank Reich had an outstanding rookie HC campaign in IND with the health of Luck playing an important role. TY the Colts are in excellent position to grab the top spot in the AFC South in the 2nd year of his tenure. With plenty of attention on re-signing their own players, the cohesion is here for continued success.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS ..... GRADE: A-

 SCORING 15.3 ppg (#31) -12 TO's -4.5 ppg (#24) SCORING 19.8 ppg (#4)

Offense: The Jaguars' offense was a train wreck in '18 as they finished #31 in the NFL at just 15.3 ppg. While the Bortles era has come to an end, they do add in former SB MVP Foles to take over under center with RB Blue now expected to take over as bkp behind Fournette. We expect a large jump in production. Grade: UP
Defense: Another outstanding def ssn was erased due to an offense that couldn't find any traction throughout the entire season. TY they add in FA Ryan and 1st Rnd DC Allen to an already stable unit. Grade: UP
Overview: While the Jaguars have done a solid job in the NFL Draft the past few seasons with the additions of Fournette, Jack, Ramsey and now Allen, it will be the FA arrival of Foles that could make or break their '19 season. With our highest grade in the DIV and renewed confidence in the offense, JAX will definitely be in contention for a playoff spot TY.

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS

GRADE: C

OFFENSE 426 ypg (#1) Chiefs: +20 ypg (#12) DEFENSE 406 ypg (#31)
 SCORING 35.3 ppg (#1) Chiefs: +9 TO's (#9 ppg (#2)) SCORING 26.3 ppg (#24)

Offense: The KC offense exploded during the '18 campaign with #1 finishes in both ypg (426) and ppg (35.3). TY it may look a bit different now that RB Hunt has moved on with WR Hill also potentially being on his way out of town. While they'll still be a talented group with Mahomes, they may not claim the top spot. Grade: DOWN

Defense: Plenty of new faces will be with the Chiefs on the def side of the ball TY following the #31 total def unit in the league (#31) a year ago. If the Chiefs are to eventually contend for a SB, the DL additions of Ogbah and Clark will play an important role. Grade: EVEN

Overview: The Chiefs entered 2018 having dropped 11 of their past 12 playoff games dating back to 1993! The switch to Mahomes at QB saw the offense unlock their potential and they landed in the AFC Championship. While the losses of Hunt and possibly Hill will dampen some of their offensive hopes, the Chiefs still find themselves as the frontrunner in the AFC West once again.

 SCORING 26.8 ppg (#6) Chargers: +1 TO's (#6.2 ppg (#7)) SCORING 20.6 ppg (#8)

Offense: While Rivers does enter his 16th yr in the NFL, the veteran showed a year ago that he can still get it done as the Chargers finished #6 in the NFL at 26.8 ppg. TY's offseason moves are minimal and we'll call them even. Grade: EVEN

Defense: With Bradley's history of creating outstanding defenses at both SEA (as DC) and in JAX (as HC), it's no surprise that they finished in the Top 10 in both ypg (334) and scoring (20.6) a year ago. Veteran LB Davis is added to an already solid LB unit with 1st Rnd DC Tillery bolstering the DL. Grade: UP

Overview: After missing out on the playoffs in 7 of the past 8 yrs ('13), the Chargers were back in the postssn LY with an outstanding 12-4 mark. TY the additions outweigh the subtractions while the early ssn schedule could have them jumping out to a lead in their DIV. The Chargers are well on their way to another playoff berth in 2019 with potentially their first AFC West title in 10 sns.

DENVER BRONCOS

 SCORING 20.6 ppg (#24) Broncos: +7 TO's (-1.2 ppg (#18)) SCORING 21.8 ppg (#13)

Offense: The Broncos have gone just 20-28 since winning Super Bowl 50 as they've had trouble with the transition at QB following the retirement of Peyton Manning. After some inconsistent signal-callers from '16-'18, John Elway made an offssn trade to add veteran Joe Flacco while moving up in the 2nd Rnd to take Drew Lock. The rest of the additions are minimal on this side of the ball. Grade: EVEN

Defense: Injuries played a significant role in DEN dropping down to #22 (365 ypg) in '18. TY they upgrade their secondary with the addition of Jackson. DL Jones will be a plug-in guy early in his career and this group should be improved. Grade: UP

Overview: The Broncos posted B2B losing campaigns for the 1st time since 1972 a year ago as what could have gone wrong, went wrong. While things are trending upward as far as personnel is concerned, having the Chiefs and Chargers inside of their DIV will likely keep them out of the postssn once again in '19.

 SCORING 18.1 ppg (#28) Raiders: -7 TO's (-11.1 ppg (#31)) SCORING 29.2 ppg (#32)

Offense: Huge changes are in store for the OAK off in '19 following the addition of a whole new WR unit led by Antonio Brown. Following the #28 scoring off in the league a year ago (18.1 ppg), year #2 under Gruden should see a significant rise in production. Grade: UP

Defense: OAK has routinely gone to the FA route to add in quality starters to this unit. TY is no different with a handful of veterans expected to play large roles following a dismal '18 where they finishing DEAD LAST in the NFL at 29.2 ppg allowed. Grade: EVEN

Overview: The Raiders have had 9 different HC's since Jon Gruden last coached here in '01 (each HC lasted 3 seasons or fewer). In fact, OAK hasn't won a playoff game since the 2002 season when a Gruden-led Bucs team captured their first and only Super Bowl against the Raiders. Following some hiccups a ssn ago, TY's FA and draft additions has the future bright for the Raiders.

DALLAS COWBOYS ..... GRADE: B-

OFFENSE 344 ypg (#22) Cowboys: +15 ypg (#14) DEFENSE 329 ypg (#7)
 SCORING 21.2 ppg (#22) +3 TO's +0.9 ppg (#14) SCORING 20.3 ppg (#6)

Offense: A year in the broadcast booth did some wonders for Witten's overall health as he re-joins the Cowboys for '19. Witten is also joined by veteran WR Cobb to give DAL a solid group to go alongside Prescott. The Cowboys will improve their numbers from a season ago. Grade: UP

Defense: The DAL defense remains virtually intact for '19 with a handful of additions via FA and the draft. Look for this group to contend for another Top 10 finish this year. Grade: EVEN

Overview: This could be the make-or-break season for Garrett (3 playoff appearances in 8 years) as DAL looks to capture their 3rd NFC East title in the past 4 years. The schedule looks favorable early on with a 5-1 start quite possible. The big question will be how well they handle the challenge of another potential postseason after taking early exits in their past 2 appearances.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS ..... GRADE: B+

OFFENSE 300 ypg (#28) Redskins: -53 ypg (#28) DEFENSE 353 ypg (#17)
 SCORING 17.6 ppg (#29) +7 TO's -4.8 ppg (#25) SCORING 22.4 ppg (#15)

Offense: The Redskins will more than likely have a new starter under center for a 3rd consec year following a significant leg injury to Alex Smith a ssn ago. While Keenum was brought in from DEN, it's 1st Rnd DC Haskins who is the future at the position. Following a rough year that saw them finishing #29 in scoring off (17.6 ppg), look for mild improvement. Grade: EVEN

Defense: The Redskins bolstered their secondary in '19 following the FA signing of Collins. The DL position also looks stable with 1st Rnd DC Sweat added to the mix. This has the making of an improved unit for the upcoming year. Grade: UP

Overview: The Redskins success has been extremely limited over the past 11 yrs with just a 71-104-1 record in that span (last playoff win came back in 2005). TY doesn't look much more promising as PHI and DAL appear to be in the mix for playoff berths and WAS finishes the year with road trips in 3 of the final 5 weeks. Could this be the last year of Jay Gruden in D.C.??

 SCORING 22.9 ppg (#18) -6 TO's +1.1 ppg (#13) SCORING 21.8 ppg (#12)

Offense: The Eagles had a middle of the pack finish LY on offense as Wentz went down once again with injury. TY they lose their security blanket in Foles at QB but do add in some weapons in RB Howard and WR Jackson along with 1st Rnd DC Dillard on the OL. Grade: EVEN

Defense: PHI just missed out in finishing in the Top 10 of scoring D a year ago at 21.8 ppg allowed (#12). While they do lose a handful of veterans, the addition up front should have them just as solid as a year ago. Grade: EVEN

Overview: The Eagles nearly strung together another miracle run to the SB a year ago with Foles leading the way. If they're going to be in contention again for '19, it will be with a healthy Wentz who has yet to start all 16 games in his short career. GM Roseman continues to do excellent work in the draft giving the Eagles a solid amount of talented depth for years to come in Philly.

 SCORING 23.1 ppg (#16) +2 TO's -2.7 ppg (#22) SCORING 25.8 ppg (#23)

Offense: With Eli Manning just 8-23 as a starter since 2017, the Giants invested in the future with the drafting of Jones in the 1st Rnd. They do however part ways with one of the league's best WR in Beckham which is a bit of a head scratcher! Grade: DOWN

Defense: While the Giants do part ways with Vernon and Collins, they did pay heavy attention with this unit in the draft highlighted by a pair of 1st Rnd DC's. Unfortunately, it may take some time to get this group up to speed. Grade: EVEN

Overview: While the Giants will more than likely miss out on the playoffs for a 7th time in the past 8 seasons, the full rebuild is clearly going on as they look to the future. Unfortunately there could be some changes in both the front office and coaching staff before their overall success on the field begins to show.

 SCORING 26.3 ppg (#9) +12 TO's +8.6 ppg (#4) SCORING 17.7 ppg (#1)

Offense: The additions of HC Nagy and OC Helfrich translated into much more production from the CHI offense a year ago as they finished #9 in scoring. While the Bears do lose RB Howard, QB Trubisky and company look poised for another strong season. Grade: EVEN
Defense: The Bears nearly became the 5th NFL squad to finish in both the Top 10 in rush and pass D for '17. LY they accomplished the feat incl the league's #1 rush D. While the cast of characters remain virtually the same in '19, they do part ways with DC Fangio. Grade: EVEN
Overview: CHI entered '18 with the 3rd fewest wins (14) over the prior 3 years. That quickly changed in Nagy's 1st year as they went 12-4 and could have collected a playoff win had it not been for a key missed FG late vs PHI. The Bears appear to be well equipped for another run at the NFC North in '19 but do end the year with a pair of DIV road contests and a home meeting with KC.

Offense: The success of the offense (and team) always depends on the health of 35-year old Rodgers who suffered through a handful of nagging issues again LY. TY the scheme will be a bit different with the coaching change although the overall cast behind Rodgers remains virtually intact. Grade: EVEN
Defense: It's abundantly clear that the Packers were aware of their defensive shortcomings in '17 with the drafting of 3 high picks in the back-7 LY. Unfortunately, those DC's didn't pay off as expected as they finished #22 in scoring. Plenty of familiar faces depart for '19. Grade: EVEN
Overview: While we do give the Packers an EVEN grade in both offense and defense for the upcoming year, we are sliding them up to an A- on the grading scale as LY's 6-9-1 campaign didn't necessarily define their season. The addition of LaFleur as HC and a decent schedule to start off the year has us calling for GB to be in the mix for a potential playoff berth.

Offense: While the Vikings had plenty of weapons at their disposal a year ago including QB Cousins, the overall numbers saw a drop to just 346 ypg (#20). TY they get some help on the OL in 1st Rnd DC Bradbury which should allow Cousins some more time in his 2nd year in MIN. Grade: EVEN
Defense: The Vikings had 10 of their starters returning LY with a former 1st Rnd DC filling in for the only departure. The MIN defense had no issue finishing inside of the Top 5 once again by allowing 310 ypg (#4). TY the losses are minimal with MIN likely in contention for another high finish. Grade: EVEN
Overview: It appeared to be SB or bust for MIN LY following a 13-3 campaign in '17 that saw them a win away from a trip to the "Big Game." Unfortunately, those expectations never panned out and the Vikings narrowly finished over .500 at 8-7-1. Will the lucrative contract that Cousins signed pay off in year 2? It may be difficult with CHI and GB inside of their DIV!

 SCORING 20.3 ppg (#25) -5 TO's -2.2 ppg (#21) SCORING 22.5 ppg (#16)

Offense: The Lions finished in the lower 3rd of the NFL a year ago in offensive rankings. TY they bring in a ton of help on this side of the ball highlighted by RB Anderson and 1st Rnd DC Hockenson. Now in the 2nd year under Patricia, this unit should be improved. Grade: UP
Defense: The Lions had a Top 10 finish in Patricia's first ssn in DET a yr ago (335 ypg). TY they add in Flowers who is well-versed in this system following yrs in NE. Plenty of young talent come in via the draft and DET should have another upper half finish for '19. Grade: EVEN
Overview: With just one playoff victory since 1957's NFL Champ win ('91 vs DAL) and failing to make consec playoff appearances in nearly 2 decades, DET has been through large doses of inconsistency in the history of the franchise. Despite expected improvement in the run game along with a stronger emphasis on the D, solid QB's inside the DIV could see the Lions finish last in the NFC North once again.

Offense: The Saints continue to deliver Top 10 performances on the offensive side of the ball with the 40-year old Brees under center. While they do lose Ingram, the additions of Murray and Cook via FA and McCoy in the draft should have them in contention for the top spot once again. Grade: EVEN

Defense: The Saints had an upper half finish on the defensive side of the ball LY thanks in part to an outstanding rush D that finished #2 in the NFL. TY they boost up the talent on the DL even further and could challenge for #1 in that area. Grade: UP

Overview: The Saints continue to cash in on their FA and DC additions which results in continued playoff appearances. While the early ssn schedule features a pair of tough road trips in B2B wks against LAR & SEA, Brees and company will more than likely be in contention for the top spot in the NFC South yet again.

Offense: Despite the losses of a handful of veteran offensive contributors a year ago, the Panthers still finished at #10 in ypg (373). TY the losses are heavy as they lose their top WR and a pair of OL. QB Newton may have his hands full in '19 as CAR inserts a boatload of new players. Grade: DOWN

Defense: While the Panthers do lose a pair of veterans from their front-7, Kuechly and company get the additions of FA's Irvin and McCoy along with #1DC Burns to a def that finished #15 a year ago at 353 ypg. Grade: EVEN

Overview: The Panthers entered LY with a handful of new faces in the starting lineup as 7 players who started 10+ games in '17 departed. While they have less departures in '19, CAR will be forced to chase NO and ATL inside of what is arguably the toughest division in the league. A somewhat favorable sked to start the season could have them in contention for a playoff berth late in the year if Newton remains healthy and keeps the offense going in the right direction.

Offense: The Falcons had no problem earning another Top 10 finish in total offense a year ago (#6, 389 ypg) behind QB Ryan and WR Jones. While they do part ways with RB Coleman in '19, 3 RB's are added in to ease the transition. Grade: EVEN

Defense: After a few yrs of lower than expected numbers and their first Top 10 D since '98, Quinn had his D heading in the right direction LY before injuries took its toll (#28 at 385 ypg). With the healthy return of both Jones and Neal along with some FA additions, this group will be improved. Grade: UP

Overview: With minimal roster turnover on both sides of the ball in '19 along with some recent postssn experience, the Falcons could be well on their way to a 2nd NFC South title in the past 4 years if they handle a late ssn schedule that features 4 consec tms that finished LY with a losing record.

SCORING 24.8 ppg (#12)	-18 TO's -4.2 ppg (#23)	SCORING 29.0 ppg (#31)

Offense: The Bucs have finished in the Top 10 of total offense (#3 LY) in each of the past 2 ssns. Despite the high finishes, HC Koetter and OC Monkken move on in favor of HC Arians. They do lose WR's Jackson and Humphries but the rest of the unit returns. Grade: EVEN

Defense: The losses on the def side of the ball for '19 are pretty severe following the departures of McCoy, Curry and Alexander. While TB does bring in some talent highlighted by #1DC White, this will be a lower-3rd group TY. Grade: DOWN

Overview: While LY's overall record was clearly a step in the wrong direction, injuries and a poor defense played an integral part in the performance. Arians did a commendable job as HC in ARZ but it could take a year or 2 to get his scheme clicking at 100%. The Bucs will likely miss out on a postssn berth for the 12th consec yr.

LOS ANGELES RAMS

GRADE: B

OFFENSE 421 ypg (#2) Rams: +62 ypg (#3) DEFENSE 359 ypg (#19)
 SCORING 32.9 ppg (#2) +11 TO's +8.9 ppg (#3) SCORING 24.0 ppg (#20)

Offense: The Rams appear to be in excellent shape for 2019 with most of their key contributors back. The biggest questions will be whether or not Gurley returns to 100% health and if opposing defenses begin to pick up on a McVay-led offense that's finished in the Top 2 the past 2 years. Grade: EVEN

Defense: The Rams fell back to #19 in total D a year ago at 359 ypg. They part ways with a trio of starters but do add veterans Matthews and Weddle along with a handful of high DC's. Grade: EVEN

Overview: Following an expensive '18 offssn and a trip to the SB, the overall portion of the Rams roster stays intact as they look to repeat as NFC Champs. They were however controlled on the offensive side of the edge in the "Big Game" which may allow future def opponents to pick up on slowing down the scheme. While the Rams are still arguably the most talented team in the West, we expect SEA and SF to challenge them.

ADDITIONS

 QB Blake Bortles (JAX)
OFFENSE (Rd-Pk)

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS

GRADE: A

OFFENSE 361 ypg (#16) 49ers: +14 ypg (#16) DEFENSE 347 ypg (#13)
 SCORING 21.4 ppg (#21) -25 TO's -5.8 ppg (#27) SCORING 27.2 ppg (#28)

Offense: While it's unlikely that Garoppolo and the SF offense will be able to keep up the same pace that they did to close out '17 now that opposing defenses have some film and a full offseason to work with, it's also clear that their days of having one of the lowest scoring offenses in the league are over if he remains healthy. SF is a team on the rise and the offense will play a big role in this year's overall success. Grade: UP

Defense: With plenty of young talent and veteran leadership available on the defensive roster for the upcoming year incl #1 DC Bosa and FA addition Alexander, the 49ers could find themselves in contention for a spot in the upper half of the rankings. Grade: UP

Overview: While the 49ers have missed the postseason in each of the past 5 years, there is plenty of positive vibes heading into '19. The additions by far outweigh the overall deletions and we'll call for them to at least double their win total of a year ago.

ADDITIONS

OFFENSE (Team)
 RB Tevin Coleman (ATL)
 WR Jordan Matthews (PHI)
OFFENSE (Rd-Pk)
 WR Deebo Samuel (2-36)

 P Mitch Wishnowsky (4-110)
 LB Dre Greenlaw (5-148)
 DB Tim Harris (6-198)

DELETIONS

OFFENSE
 RB Mike Davis (CHI)
 WR Bruce Ellington (NE)

DEFENSE

SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

GRADE: C+

OFFENSE 353 ypg (#18) Seahawks: +0 ypg (#10) DEFENSE 353 ypg (#16)
 SCORING 26.8 ppg (#6) +15 TO's +5.1 ppg (#10) SCORING 21.7 ppg (#11)

Offense: The SEA off was much stronger than expected a year ago by climbing all the way up to #6 at 26.8 ppg. While they do part ways with one of their top WR's heading into '19 the Seahawks do bring in a trio of DC's at the position to help fill Baldwin's void. With a steadier ground game, SEA could come close to LY's production. Grade: EVEN

Defense: The overall talent on the Seahawks D continues to decline with a handful of veterans moving on. They do however bring in a solid draft class that could be thrust into the mix early on. SEA will have a middle of the pack showing for the upcoming year. Grade: EVEN

Overview: The Seahawks made one of the biggest overhauls in the NFL last offseason. The changes in SEA didn't end on the roster however as the coaching staff saw 6 new assistants including a new OC and DC. With the Rams posting one of the league's best marks a year ago and SF expected to be solid, SEA will find it tough to reach the 10-win mark of last season.

ADDITIONS

OFFENSE (Team)
 OL Mike Iupati (ARZ)
 K Jason Myers (NYJ)
OFFENSE (Rd-Pk)
 WR DK Metcalf (2-64)
 WR Gary Jennings (4-120)
 OL Phil Haynes (4-124)
 RB Travis Homer (6-204)
 WR John Ursua (7-236)

DEFENSE (Team)
 DL Ziggy Ansah (DET)
DEFENSE (Rd-Pk)
 DL LJ Collier (1-29)
 DB Marquise Blair (2-47)
 LB Cody Barton (3-88)
 LB Ugo Amadi (4-132)
 LB Ben Burr-Kirven (5-142)
 DL Demarcus Christmas (6-209)

DELETIONS

OFFENSE
 QB Brett Hundley (ARZ)
 WR Doug Baldwin (RET)
 OL JR Sweezy (ARZ)
 K Sebastian Janikowski (RET)

DEFENSE
 DL Frank Clark (KC)
 DL Shamar Stephen (MIN)
 DB Kam Chancellor (RET)
 DB Justin Coleman (DET)
 DB Earl Thomas (BAL)

ARIZONA CARDINALS

GRADE: B+

OFFENSE 242 ypg (#32) Cardinals: -117 ypg (#32) DEFENSE 359 ypg (#20)
 SCORING 14.1 ppg (#32) -12 TO's -12.5 ppg (#32) SCORING 26.6 ppg (#26)

Offense: Big changes are in store for the ARZ off in '19 following the arrival of HC Kingsbury and the drafting of QB Murray. Add in a handful of FA's and DC's and the Cardinals will have no problem climbing back up the offensive rankings following DEAD LAST finishes a year ago. Grade: UP

Defense: The Def scheme changes once again along with a handful of personnel. The biggest impacts should be felt on the front-7 as ARZ looks to climb into the upper half of the rankings following a #20 finish (359 ypg) LY. Grade: EVEN

Overview: In '17 ARZ had the oldest team in the NFL (avg age of 29) and injuries on both sides took a major toll. LY the youth infusion began with TY's additions further cementing the rebuild. Kingsbury and Murray have a solid chance of getting some wins early on with a favorable schedule before the bulk of their tough matchups take place. Following just a 3-13 mark of a year ago, we'll call for ARZ to top that mark in 2019.
